DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-49 were subject to restriction or election requirement.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

Group I. Claims 1-13, 30-41, and 45-46 drawn to a method (and storage device readable by a processor) of limiting access to a media tray wherein the print jobs with associated with job pass codes, classified in Class 358, subclass 1.6;

Group II. Claims 14-24, drawn to a system access to a media tray wherein the media tray access is based on a relationship between the job pass code and the target pass code, classified in Class 358, subclass 1.1;

Group III. Claims 25-29, drawn to a network device configured to limit access to a media tray, classified in Class 358, subclass 1.15;

Group IV. Claims 42-44, drawn to a printing device having a media input, classified in Class 358, subclass 498; and Group V. Claims 47-49, drawn to a method limiting access to a media tray by broadcasting the target pass code, classified in Class 358 subclass 1.14.

3. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I-V are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination, the single combination being a network printing system having a limiting access to the media tray. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable and different classification. There are different features of the independent claims that are not included in the other claims. Claims are drawn to different features of a printing device having limiting access to the media tray. In the instant case, each of the respective inventions have been separate utility as in a system not having the others. See M.P.E.P. § 806.05(d).

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, each Group requiring a separate field of search, and their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. A telephone call was made to Mr Walter W Karnstein (35,565) on 9/11/08 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the response to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed.

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 C.F.R. § 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a diligently-filed petition under 37 C.F.R. § 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 C.F.R. § 1.17(h).
